Kingsoft Further Expands Japan Market

Launches Self-Developed Kingsoft PowerWord Japanese Version

(March 26, 2009 – Hong Kong) Kingsoft Corporation Limited ("Kingsoft" or the "Company"; SEHK stock code: 03888), China's leading entertainment and applications software developer, distributor and service provider based on market share, announces that Kingsoft PowerWord Japanese Version (キングソフト辞書) is officially launched in Japan today, a move to further expand the Company's foothold in the country. To accommodate the different specification of desktop and iPhone, PC Supported Version and iPhone Supported Version are available to fulfill the needs of users.

Kingsoft PowerWord Japanese Version is free software. Users can download the PC Supported Version for free at Kingsoft Japan Inc.'s corporate website (http://www.kingsoft.jp). iPhone Supported Version will be available for download at App Store of Apple Inc. in a few days. PC Supported Version adopts dictionaries from various well-established and famous dictionary publishers in a bid to provide users with the most comprehensive and accurate vocabulary database (Japanese-English, English-Japanese, and Japanese-Japanese) and translation functions (Japanese-English, English-Japanese, Japanese-Chinese, and Chinese-Japanese).

In 2005, Kingsoft established a subsidiary in Japan to develop the country's applications software market. Kingsoft Internet Security Japanese Version and WPS Office were launched from 2005 to 2007. Kingsoft PowerWord Japanese Version is the third software in Japan. Mr Haiyin SHEN, Vice President of Kingsoft and Chief Executive Officer of Kingsoft Japan Inc, said, "I am pleased that we have successfully developed Kingsoft PowerWord Japanese Version and launch the product. Its comprehensive vocabulary database provides users with a quality vocabulary checking and translating functions. Currently, PC Supported Version and iPhone Supported Version are free for users to download, we plan to initiate advertisement cooperation and develop extra value-added function in the future."
