Kingsoft Teams Up with Microsoft MSN Offers Anti-Virus Products for MSN

(November 6, 2008 - Hong Kong) Kingsoft Corporation Limited (“Kingsoft” or the “Company”; SEHK stock code: 3888), China’s leading entertainment and applications software developer, distributor and service provider by market share, announced that the Company has reached a strategic cooperation agreement with Microsoft MSN to jointly launch the free “MSN Protection Shield v1.0” and “MSN Security Center”, the reliable anti-virus software for all users of Windows Live Messenger and Internet.

With the growing popularity of Internet instant messaging, security of instant messaging software has become a concern. According to the statistics from the Global Anti-virus Monitoring Center, Kingsoft Internet Security, or KISS, the anti-virus software developed by Kingsoft, has intercepted more than 250,000 viruses related to real-time communications during first seven months in 2008, accounting for about 16% of the total number of new virus.

The new security product, “MSN Protection Shield v1.0”, helps all users of Windows Live Messenger detect and prevent virus related to MSN. “MSN Protection Shield v1.0” will conduct security scans to detect 500 known viruses that might jeopardize MSN and more than 70,000 epidemic viruses once Messenger is activated. It will also generate security alert before spreading of potential virus. The software will conduct file scanning when users exchange files with friends.

Regarding “MSN Security Center”, it is able to fix system loopholes, clean up malicious software and restore browsers for Internet users.

“MSN Protection Shield v1.0” and “MSN Security Center” are free of charge and can be downloaded at <http://im.live.cn/safe> and <http://im.live.cn/safe/center>.

Mr. Ge Ke, Senior Vice President of Kingsoft, said: “Kingsoft has started cooperation with Microsoft MSN on security and protection of instant messaging as early as August 2007. Kingsoft is pleased to further team up with Microsoft MSN to jointly provide security service for users of instant messaging. Through our joint efforts, we believe we will enhance the security level of instant messaging. Based on the established foundation, we will further deepen our cooperation in the future to continue to provide users with more comprehensive and reliable security solutions. "

Liu Zhenyu, Vice President of Microsoft MSN, said: "Partnership is a very driving force for Microsoft MSN. We believe that we can live up to our motto 'Consideration and Trust' and to deliver more secure and pleasant experience to users, through the technical support from Kingsoft and the domestic R&D of MSN."
