ANNOUNCEMENT
CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS
REVISION OF ANNUAL CAPS UNDER THE GAME OPERATION AGREEMENT WITH TENCENT SHENZHEN

This announcement is made pursuant to Rule 14A.54 of the Listing Rules.

Reference is made to the announcement of the Company dated 19 February 2016 in relation to the continuing connected transactions between Seasun, a subsidiary of the Company, and Tencent Shenzhen under the Game Operation Agreement.

For the period from 19 February 2016 to 31 December 2016, the two years ending 31 December 2018 and the period from 1 January 2019 to 31 January 2019, the Annual Caps under the Game Operation Agreement were RMB393.48 million, RMB960.37 million, RMB583.59 million, and RMB36.74 million respectively. Due to the expansion of user base of JX Qingyuan, a newly developed mobile game of Seasun, it is expected that the service fees payable by Tencent Group to the Group for operating the on-line games under the Game Operation Agreement will possibly increase accordingly. As such, Seasun and Tencent Shenzhen revised the Annual Caps on 25 October 2016 from RMB393.48 million to RMB750.00 million for the period from 19 February 2016 to 31 December 2016, from RMB960.37 million to RMB955.74 million for the year ending 31 December 2017, from RMB583.59 million to RMB757.16 million for the year ending 31 December 2018, and from RMB36.74 million to RMB51.38 million for the period from 1 January 2019 to 31 January 2019. Saved as disclosed above, all existing major terms and conditions under the Game Operation Agreement remain unchanged.

Tencent is a substantial shareholder of Cheetah, a subsidiary of the Company. Tencent Shenzhen is a subsidiary of Tencent. Therefore, Tencent Shenzhen is a connected person of the Company at the subsidiary level. As such, the Game Operation Agreement entered into between Seasun and Tencent Shenzhen and the transactions contemplated thereunder constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.
As the Directors had approved such transactions and the independent non-executive Directors had confirmed that the terms of such transactions were fair and reasonable, on normal commercial terms and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole, the Revised Annual Caps are only subject to the announcement and annual review requirements but exempted from independent shareholders’ approval, pursuant to Rule 14A.101 of the Listing Rules.

1 BACKGROUND

This announcement is made pursuant to Rule 14A.54 of the Listing Rules.

Reference is made to the announcement of the Company dated 19 February 2016 in relation to the continuing connected transactions between Seasun, a subsidiary of the Company, and Tencent Shenzhen under the Game Operation Agreement.

On 19 February 2016, Seasun and Tencent Shenzhen entered into the Game Operation Agreement, pursuant to which, the Group will license Tencent Group to operate and Tencent Group will operate the on-line games (including but not limited to mobile games and PC games) developed and owned by the Group or the on-line games (including but not limited to mobile games and PC games) licensed to be operated by the Group, through platforms such as website, software, PC products and mobile products, etc. The fees payable by Tencent Group to the Group for operating the on-line games under the Game Operation Agreement shall be subject to the Annual Caps.

Due to the expansion of user base of JX Qingyuan, a newly developed mobile game of Seasun, it is expected that the fees for operating on-line games payable by Tencent Group to the Group will possibly increase accordingly. As such, Seasun and Tencent Shenzhen revised the Annual Caps on 25 October 2016.

2 REVISION OF THE ANNUAL CAPS

For the eight months ended 31 August 2016, the historical transaction amount of fees payable by Tencent Group to the Group for operating the on-line games was approximately RMB254.61 million. The Company confirms that, up to the date of this announcement, the transaction amount of fees payable by Tencent Group to the Group for operating the on-line games under the Game Operation Agreement has not exceeded the current Annual Cap for the period from 19 February 2016 to 31 December 2016, i.e., RMB393.48 million.
On 25 October 2016, Seasun and Tencent Shenzhen revised the Annual Caps under the Game Operation Agreement as follows:

The aforementioned Revised Annual Caps are determined with reference to (i) historical transaction amount for the eight months ended 31 August 2016; (ii) the current user base of JX Qingyuan and its potential growth as well as the operational cycle of on-line games; (iii) the purchase price of virtual items of the on-line games.

Saved as disclosed above, all existing major terms and conditions under the Game Operation Agreement remain unchanged.

3  IMPLICATIONS UNDER THE LISTING RULES

Seasun is a subsidiary of the Company. Tencent is a substantial shareholder of Cheetah, a subsidiary of the Company. Tencent Shenzhen is a subsidiary of Tencent. Therefore, Tencent Shenzhen is a connected person of the Company at the subsidiary level. As such, the Game Operation Agreement entered into between Seasun and Tencent Shenzhen and the transactions contemplated thereunder constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

As the Directors had approved such transactions and the independent non-executive Directors had confirmed that the terms of such transactions were fair and reasonable, on normal commercial terms and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole, the Revised Annual Caps are only subject to the announcement and annual review requirements but exempted from independent shareholders’ approval pursuant to Rule 14A.101 of the Listing Rules.

The Directors, including the independent non-executive Directors, considered that the Revised Annual Caps are fair and reasonable. The Board has therefore approved the resolution in relation to the Revised Annual Caps. Given that Mr. Chi Ping LAU is a director of Tencent, he has abstained from voting in respect of the relevant Board resolution approving the Revised Annual Caps. Save as stated above, none of the Directors has a material interest in the Game Operation Agreement nor has any of them abstained from voting in respect of the relevant Board resolution.
