Chinese President Visits Kingsoft Office
Calls on Kingsoft To Be Pioneer in China's Software Industry

(December 22, 2009 – Hong Kong) Kingsoft Corporation Limited (“Kingsoft” or the “Company”; SEHK stock code: 03888), China’s leading entertainment and applications software developer, distributor and service provider in terms of market share, is pleased to announce that Chinese President Hu Jintao visited Kingsoft’s office and research centre in Zhuhai, Guangdong province yesterday. Mr. Pak Kwan KAU, Chairman and CEO, Mr. Jun LEI, Vice Chairman of Kingsoft, escorted President Hu to visit departments of Kingsoft WPS Office, Kingsoft Internet Security and Kingsoft online games.

President Hu was glad when he was told that Kingsoft self develops its software products and possesses all core technologies and intellectual property rights. He was also glad to know that Kingsoft achieves better sales performance this year. President Hu said in face of the negative impacts incurred by the global financial crisis, the Company's business success was indispensable from the country's support and its own research and innovation.

At last, President Hu encouraged the Company by saying “Information technology is highly competitive internationally. I hope that you all could place top priority on research and innovation, put in hard efforts to develop software products with self-owned intellectual property rights, and be a pioneer in China’s software industry.”

Mr. Pak Kwan KAU, Chairman and CEO of Kingsoft, said, “Kingsoft is dedicated to research and innovation and possess numerous high-end, self-developed entertainment and applications software products. As a domestic software company with long operating history, we have benefited from favorable government policies. We believe President Hu’s visit is recognition of the strategic importance of domestic software development as well as the leading market position of Kingsoft. We believe that the Company’s future prospect is promising. In the future, we will continue to develop more high-end domestic software products to live up to our promise of research and innovation.”
